The full amount of the holiday must be paid nine weeks before departure. If a booking is made within nine weeks, then the full amount must be paid at the time of booking. We regret to advise that we cannot accept cheques less than seven days prior to the date of departure. For those of you who pay the deposit by credit card we will automatically deduct the final balance on the due date without further reference to you. Full payment and balances over £1k made with a credit or charge card (switch & delta excluded) will automatically incur an additional 2% charge.

If racing is cancelled prior to the event, our normal cancellation charges as shown above will apply although we will try to mitigate these as far as is possible. Should racing be cancelled on the day, we will try to retrieve any racecourse costs from the applicable racecourse/authorities on your behalf.

Amendments by us

We make every effort to operate holidays as featured in our brochure, but nevertheless from time to time, hoteliers and other services we use, can and occasionally do, withdraw or change certain facilities. When we are aware of this, you will be notified immediately. A holiday of a similar or higher standard will be offered in this eventuality, and if not acceptable, a full refund of all monies paid will be given. We will not cancel a holiday less than four weeks prior to departure, unless it is necessary to do so as a result of circumstances amounting to force majeure or if your balance payment is not forwarded to us on the due date. We cannot accept responsibility for acts and omissions of the event organisers.

Amendments by you

Certain airlines insist on tickets being issued immediately, which we will do upon receipt of your booking form and these are ticketed on a non-refundable, non-changeable basis. Therefore any alteration, such as name change, would incur the purchase cost of a new ticket. However, you should check with us for full details as airline policies do differ from carrier to carrier. Please note that due to stringent security precautions in force at airports, the name on your passport must agree with the name on your air ticket.

Complaints

Whilst we aim to ensure that your holiday runs smoothly, there may be times when it does not. Please follow the complaints procedure below to minimize inconvenience to all parties: 1. Any complaint should be reported immediately and directly to the supplier and, as soon as possible, to our local representative (where applicable). If you fail to follow this simple procedure, your right to claim compensation may be affected, as we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify the problem. 2. In the unlikely event that neither our representative nor our supplier is able to resolve the matter to your complete satisfaction, please telephone, fax or e-mail the details of your complaint to International Travel Connections in Chester on Tel +44(0)1244 355 400, Fax +44(0)1244 355 419, E-mail Concierge@ITC-UK.com. Any costs incurred in doing so will be fully refunded. 3. Once in receipt of a complaint, we will react swiftly to resolve the matter. Our aim is to rectify any shortcomings immediately, so that you can fully enjoy the remainder of your holiday. If you still have cause for complaint on your return to the UK, you are required to seek satisfaction by writing to the Company within 28 days of the end of your holiday and providing full details of the holiday and the reason for dissatisfaction. We regret that we cannot accept liability in relation to any complaint or claim which is not notified entirely in accordance with this Clause. Disputes arising out of or in connection with this contract that cannot be amicably settled, may (if the client so wishes) be referred to arbitration under a special scheme, which although devised by arrangement with the Association of British Travel Agents is administered quite independently by the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators. The Scheme (details of which will be supplied on request) provides for a simple and inexpensive method of arbitration on documents alone with restricted liability on the customer in respect of costs. The scheme does not apply to claims for an amount greater than £5,000 per person, or £25,000 per Booking Form. The Scheme does not apply to claims which are solely or mainly in respect of physical injury or illness or the consequences of such injury or illness. If you elect to seek redress under this scheme, written notice requesting arbitration under this scheme must be made within 9 months after the scheduling date of return from the holiday.

Delays

We cannot accept any responsibility for any delays in departures or for any costs incurred by you as a result of any delays, this is solely the responsibility of the carrier. If you have taken out insurance, you may be able to claim compensation for delays in excess of 12 hours. We will endeavour to keep you informed of the cause and extent of delays but ultimately this information is provided by the airlines on whom we depend for information. Where long flight delays result in lost holiday time, no refunds are given by hotels for unused accommodation as rooms are held for delayed arrivals. Similarly, airlines do not offer compensation for flight delays.

Airline Seat Requests

Passengers requiring assistance at airports or check in should advise us prior to departure to ensure that the necessary arrangements are made with the airline.

YOUR FINANCIAL SECURITY

Under EEC legislation, all travel companies have to make arrangements to give financial security for pre-payments made by their clients. Make sure your money is safe by dealing with a fully bonded and secure operator.
